Division of Continuing Education, Knoxville

Joseph P. Goddard, Dean
William D. Barton, Assistant Dean

The Division of Continuing Education at Knoxville extends the academic programs and services for all colleges and schools on campus to the people in the area served by The University of Tennessee, Knoxville. In addition, the Division cooperates with all other campuses of The University of Tennessee in extending academic programs and services to all citizens of the state.

Conferences and Institutes

Director:
F.A. Thurman, B.A. Tennessee.
Associate Director:
R.H. Rader, M.S. Tennessee.
Assistant Director:

Conferences, institutes short courses and workshops from one day to two weeks or more in length are planned and administered by this department and the related academic departments in cooperation with business, industrial, and professional organizations. Each program is specifically designed for the needs of the group being served and may be held on the University campuses or at any other place in the state where adequate facilities and sufficient interest exist.

Off-Campus Programs

Director:
Assistant Director:

The Department of Off-Campus Programs is a service-oriented administrative unit. The students toward whom that service is directed are the part-time adult students who live some distance from the UTK campus and who take part or all their courses at off-campus locations.

University Evening School (Knoxville and Oak Ridge)

Director:
Assistant Director:
J.C. Sekula, Ph.D. Tennessee.
Assistant Professor (full-time only):
G.M. Fisher, M.S. Tennessee.
Instructors (full-time only):
A.J. MacCabe, M.S. SUNY at Albany;
C.B. Mamantov, B.S. Louisiana State.

The University Evening School with the cooperation of academic colleges and departments administers credit classes and supports activities for those students attending in the late afternoon and evening. Programs are offered enabling working adults to pursue their educational interests and goals.

Workshops and Non-Credit Programs

Director:
Assistant Director:
R.S. Gordon, M.S. Tennessee.

The Department of Workshops and Non-Credit Programs coordinates credit workshops offered through various academic units of the University. Additionally, this department administers the non-credit courses offered both on and off campus. Non-credit courses provide opportunities for remedial, in-service, and leisure-type educational programming for the Knoxville community.

Certain non-credit courses are approved for veteran's training. For specific information, contact the Department of Workshops and Non-Credit Programs.
