The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, is the state's flagship campus in undergraduate, graduate, and professional studies; research and creative activity; and public service.

The University offers more than 300 degree programs to its 25,000 students, who come from every county in Tennessee, every state in the nation, and more than 160 countries. The faculty and staff at UT Knoxville are constantly working to enhance the quality of students' educational experiences, using information from student tests and surveys to improve teaching and student services. Recent improvements at the undergraduate level include an increased emphasis on advising and better training of graduate teaching assistants.

Developments in graduate education have been accompanied by expanded cooperation with Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL) and the Tennessee Valley Authority and by growth of major research programs, including those in the fields of energy, biotechnology, and robotics.

The Science Alliance is the largest Tennessee's Centers of Excellence program for higher education. The Science Alliance's Distinguished Scientist Program, designed to strengthen cooperative institutional and research activities, attracts many eminent scientists to joint appointments at UT Knoxville and ORNL.

The campus has other Centers of Excellence in hazardous waste management, materials processing, and veterinary medicine.

The University's libraries, with more than 102 million volumes and 270,000 unique-equivalents, enhance an educational program dedicated to keeping pace with a changing society. A 300,000-square-foot library at the center of the campus meets student and faculty research space needs and incorporates the latest advances in computer and automation technology. Through public service activities, the University's resources are not available in the state of residence.

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award baccalaureate, masters, and doctoral degrees.

The majority of the scholarship programs are coordinated by the Financial Aid Office and are awarded based on demonstrated strong academic achievement and financial need. Some undergraduate scholarships for currently enrolled students are administered by individual colleges or departments may require a separate application.

The academic merit scholarship program makes awards based on academic achievement only. To compete for merit scholarships only, a student must be admitted or currently enrolled. All scholarships are awarded for one year, with the recipients competing for scholarships each year of enrollment.

Federal Pell Grant. Pell Grants are awarded only to undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor's or professional degree. A Federal Pell Grant does not have to be repaid. All undergraduate applicants applying for need-based financial assistance from the university must apply for a Federal Pell Grant.

The FSEOG is a need-based grant administered by the Federal Pell Grant. Students must be full-time undergraduate students to be eligible, and the FSEOG is limited, and do not require repayment.

UT Knoxville encourages persons whose interests and goals have changed with time. Many students who have left or no college work find, after some years in the working world, they are both willing and able to take advantage of the study opportunities provided by a major university such as UT Knoxville. No course may be repeated in which a grade of C or better has already been earned. Exceptions to the number of times a course may be repeated will be allowed only with prior written permission of the student's college dean. Each course is counted only once in determining credit hours presented for graduation.

GRADUATE SCHOOL GRADES
Graduate students and undergraduates taking courses for graduate credit are graded as follows:

A (4 quality points per hour), superior performance
B+ (3.8 quality points per hour), better than satisfactory performance
B (3 quality points per hour), satisfactory performance
C+ (2.5 quality points per hour), less than satisfactory performance
C (2 quality points per hour), unsatisfactory performance and cannot be used to satisfy degree requirements (no quality points), extremely unsatisfactory performance and cannot be used to satisfy degree requirements (no quality points), temporary grade indicating that the student has performed satisfactorily in the course but, due to unforeseen circumstances, has been unable to finish all requirements. An I is not given to enable the student to do additional work to raise a deficient grade. The course will not be counted in the cumulative grade average until a final grade is assigned. No student may graduate with an I on the record. Consult the Graduate Catalog for regulations concerning the removal of incomplete grades.

S/NC (carries no credit hours or quality points), indicates that the student has elected S/NC grading. If the student later decides to take the course for credit, the student may request that the grade be changed from S/NC to a conventional letter grade. Grades of A, B+, B, C+, C, D, F will be recorded on the student's permanent record.

LAW SCHOOL GRADES
Law students are graded on a numerical scale from 0.0 to 4.0. Each grade, except a grade of I, is considered to be of satisfactory performance. A grade of I indicates that the student has performed satisfactorily in the course but, due to unforeseen circumstances, has been unable to finish all requirements. An I is not given to enable the student to do additional work to raise a deficient grade. The course will not be counted in the cumulative grade average until a final grade is assigned. No student may repeat a course for S/NC credit.

W (withdrawal) is assigned in courses when a student has officially withdrawn from the University. Regulations concerning withdrawal from courses or from the University appear in a following section of this catalog, entitled "Withdrawal."
CUNY COURSE NUMBERS AND LEVELS

Each course offered by the University is identified by the name of the department offering the course and a three-digit course number. These numbers indicate course level, as follows:

800-899 Upper division—primarily for juniors and seniors
300-499 Graduate; open to qualified students
000-099 Undergraduate; open to qualified students

freshmen and transfer students are required to meet the following requirements:

- Maximum credit hours for those courses that extend through the entire session. Students may enroll for a maximum of 12 credit hours in any combination of summer session courses. Enrollment that exceeds the maximum must be approved by the dean of the student’s college or school.

AUDITING COURSES

- Students may audit courses as auditors with the consent of the instructor. The instructor will determine the appropriate requirements of restrictions. Auditors receive no credit and the audited course will not be recorded on the transcript. The student’s name will appear on the class roll to inform the instructor that the student is properly enrolled as an auditor.

- Auditors are required to register and pay fees. Prior to the add deadline, a change from credit to audit or from audit to credit may be made by completing the change of credit/audit form. Enrollment in more than 19 hours must be approved by the Dean of Student Conduct and Orientation. Generally, a student should not exceed 23 hours, with the exception of those students in a specific orientation program. Students must be approved by the dean of the student’s college or school.

- Students may withdraw from courses without withdrawal notification being recorded on the academic record. A student who does withdraw officially must apply for withdrawal in the registration office. Requests for withdrawal are routinely approved when the student applies by the drop date.

- Students who do withdraw officially must apply for readmission in advance of their next term of anticipated enrollment. Enrolled students are liable for payment of fees. Any refunds that may be due upon a student’s withdrawal are issued by the Bursar’s Office.

UNDERGRADUATE RETENTION STANDARDS

TRANSFER STUDENTS

A transfer student who has been conditionally admitted must meet the regular University standards of retention during the first term, or any subsequent term before being allowed to register for subsequent terms.

ACADEMIC SECOND OPPORTUNITY

The Academic Second Opportunity is designed to assist the student who was not academically successful during a degree program. It is an acknowledgment by the University that the student’s earlier work is not consistent with his or her academic potential but that the work earned since this return is policy, is not intended to allow students to progress directly into a major exception to progression standards that may be made at the college level. An undergraduate student may petition for Academic Second Opportunity upon meeting the following requirements:

1) The student has re-enrolled following an absence from UT Knoxville of at least 3 years.

2) The student’s previous academic record at the University was unsatisfactory (normally, below a C average).

3) since readmission, the student has completed 15 or more graded hours, earning a 2.5 GPA or above.

Decisions on granting Academic Second Opportunity are made by committees. If the student’s petition is approved, all previous academic work will remain on the permanent record, but the grades for such work will not be used in determining a degree point average or in determining academic standing.

Previous credits are recorded and a grade of C or better will continue to meet major, distribution, and graduation requirements.
To receive a bachelor's degree from The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, a student must complete all of the requirements listed below. Some schools in the system, as well as the University itself, have special requirements above and beyond those listed below. Students are advised to consult the appropriate section of this catalog for any further degree requirements. Each program presented by the candidate for the degree is reviewed and approved for meeting the degree requirements by the Office of the Dean of Admissions and Records.

1. Complete satisfactorily all requirements of the curriculum for which the student is enrolled, as described in the catalog devoted to the college or school offering the curricula. Curricular requirements change frequently, and students should note the caution on the second page of this catalog. A student is allowed to satisfy requirements for a bachelor's degree under any curriculum in effect during the student's attendance at UT Knoxville provided the curriculum has been in effect within six years of the date of graduation. This does not obligate the University to offer a discontinued course. Programs may be adjusted by the student's faculty advisor and college dean, in consultation with the Registrar's Office.

2. Achieve a grade point average of at least 2.00 on all work attempted at The University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Students bringing transfer work to UT before Fall 1985 must have a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 on all UTK work and the work transferred in prior to that date, or the average earned at UT Knoxville in order to qualify for honors categories. For all students entering Fall, 1985 and thereafter, honors categories are based on the average earned at The University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Students must have earned at least 60 hours at UT Knoxville in order to qualify for honors categories. For students who entered prior to Fall, 1985, the honors categories are based on the average earned at UTK and the transfer work brought in prior to that date, or the average earned at UT Knoxville, with the lower of the two averages determining the honors category. Transfer work transferred after Fall, 1985 is not counted.

3. Complete the last six hours of credit offered for the bachelor's degree at an accredited senior college.

4. Complete the last 30 hours of credit offered for the bachelor's degree in residence at The University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Credit for correspondence courses taught by the faculty of the Knoxville campus may be counted as part of this requirement, with the exception of the limitations noted in the regulations concerning correspondence work. Special arrangements to allow work taken at other University of Tennessee campuses to be counted as part of this requirement must be approved by the dean of the student's major college. The Committee appointed by the Office of the Dean of Admissions and Records will determine how the six hours' credit for fulfillment of this requirement is to be included in the student's curriculum. Curricular requirements change frequently, and students should note the caution on the second page of this catalog. A BACHELOR'S DEGREE

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR A BACHELOR'S DEGREE

To graduate, a student granted Academic Second Opportunity must complete at least 30 hours at UT Knoxville following readmission. To meet minimum qualifications for graduation with honors, the student must earn at least 60 semester hours of letter grades (A-F) following readmission. Academic Second Opportunity may be granted only once. If hours earned during the previous attendance have already been applied toward the completion of an awarded degree, Academic Second Opportunity will not be granted. Registration at another college or university since the previous UT Knoxville enrollment will not prevent a student from qualifying. The last 60 hours of credit counted toward the baccalaureate degree must have been earned at an accredited senior college. Permission must be made no later than the academic term prior to the one when the degree will be granted. Petition forms are available in Room 202 Student Services Building.

ACADEMIC REVIEW

The University of Tennessee expects all students to maintain a good academic standing. To accomplish this, the University has established retention standards. To graduate from UT Knoxville, a student must earn a cumulative minimum GPA of 2.00. The catalog contains additional retention, progression, and graduation requirements for specific programs.

Students will be placed in Academic Review when either their cumulative GPA falls below the minimum acceptable level of 2.00 for one or more semesters, or when their semester GPA falls below the minimum acceptable level of 2.00 for two consecutive semesters regardless of their cumulative GPA. During that semester and the following semester, the student must meet with a special advisor to develop a plan for correcting the deficiency. In addition, while in review, a student does not maintain a 2.00 grade point average for hours attempted each term. The student must meet with a committee appointed by the academic dean of the college or school of enrollment. This committee will determine the most appropriate academic action. Students may be placed in Academic Review for failure to accomplish the action recommended by the committee or by the completion of a semester of enrollment under the Academic Review Committee's approval. No record of a student in the present college, the student may be released from that college and referred to the Records Office. The Records Office will either dismiss the student from the University for all or part of the semester or require the student to meet with a counselor to identify a more appropriate course of action. A student with a cumulative GPA of 2.00 or higher on UT Knoxville work may be admitted to an alternate college or major.

ACADEMIC REVIEW

The University of Tennessee expects all students to maintain a good academic standing. To accomplish this, the University has established retention standards. To graduate from UT Knoxville, a student must earn a cumulative minimum GPA of 2.00. The catalog contains additional retention, progression, and graduation requirements for specific programs.

Students will be placed in Academic Review when either their cumulative GPA falls below the minimum acceptable level of 2.00 for one or more semesters, or when their semester GPA falls below the minimum acceptable level of 2.00 for two consecutive semesters regardless of their cumulative GPA. During that semester and the following semester, the student must meet with a special advisor to develop a plan for correcting the deficiency. In addition, while in review, a student does not maintain a 2.00 grade point average for hours attempted each term. The student must meet with a committee appointed by the academic dean of the college or school of enrollment. This committee will determine the most appropriate academic action. Students may be placed in Academic Review for failure to accomplish the action recommended by the committee or by the completion of a semester of enrollment under the Academic Review Committee's approval. No record of a student in the present college, the student may be released from that college and referred to the Records Office. The Records Office will either dismiss the student from the University for all or part of the semester or require the student to meet with a counselor to identify a more appropriate course of action. A student with a cumulative GPA of 2.00 or higher on UT Knoxville work may be admitted to an alternate college or major.

The College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources traces its History to 1869 when the University was designated as Tennessee’s Federal Land-Grant Institution. Under terms of the Federal Land-Grant Act, the University was enabled for the first time to offer instruction in agriculture. This later was expanded to include research for the development of new knowledge and extension for dissemination of such knowledge to rural people.

Two separate administration units—the Agricultural Experiment Station and the Agricultural Extension Service—were organized and assigned responsibility for research and extension functions, respectively. More recently a College of Veterinary Medicine was established. These three units and the College now constitute the University of Tennessee’s Institute of Agriculture. Thus, the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources is not only an academic unit of The University of Tennessee, Knoxville Campus, it is also an important administrative unit of the Institute of Agriculture.

There are many shared resources and positive interactions between various units of the Institute. For example, most of the faculty in the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources hold joint appointments in the Agricultural Experiment Station and they are actively involved in significant basic and applied research in agriculture and the associated natural resources. On campus and field research laboratories are utilized in the instructional programs of the College, while extension and research activities provide many students excellent part-time job opportunities.

The unique association the College has with the UT Knoxville campus and the other units of the Institute of Agriculture make it possible for the College to offer comprehensive high quality undergraduate and graduate programs.

The College provides curricula leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Forestry, Bachelor of Science in Ornamental Horticulture and Landscape Design and Bachelor of Science in Wildlife and Fisheries Science. The professional degree program in agricultural engineering receives strong support from the College of Engineering and is fully accredited by the Accreditation Board of Engineering and Technology, The forest resources management and wilderness recreation concentrations are fully accredited by the Society of American Foresters.

A pre-professional curriculum in veterinary medicine is offered in the College. This program is designed to prepare students for admission to the College of Veterinary Medicine located on the Knoxville campus.

Students pursuing programs leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture major in one of several specialized areas of agriculture offered in the College. These major areas are agricultural economics and business, agricultural education, animal sciences, food technology and science, and plant and soil science. Specific courses required for each of these areas are given under the departmental headings in this section of the catalog. A student must complete the curriculum outlined by the department in which he/she is majoring in order to receive a degree. In all areas of specialization, particular emphasis is placed upon the sciences as a background for agricultural instruction; other courses are included to provide a liberal education. In all subject matter departments there is the opportunity to select elective courses appropriate to the educational objectives of individual students. The choice of electives in each curriculum should be made with the guidance of the faculty advisor.

A pre-professional curriculum leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering may select the concentration offered in food engineering. Students seeking the Bachelor of Science in Forestry may choose concentrations in forest resources management, wilderness recreation or wildlife management.

All academic and general requirements of the University as stated in the front section of this catalog must be met by agricultural students, and they must complete the requirements in one of the organized curricula. Students transferring into the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources from other than the UT Knoxville campus must have a grade point average of 2.5. The use of transfer credit in technical subject matter areas appropriate to each organized curriculum will be considered and approved by the advisor of that curriculum and the Dean of the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources. When desirable, validating or proficiency examinations may be requested to determine competence in an area and to avoid unnecessary repetition. Such examinations should be taken during the first semester in residence and must be conducted under the supervision of the head of the department in which the course is offered. A minimum of 18 semester hours of upper division technical agriculture appropriate to a specified major requirement, and approved by the major advisor, must be completed in residence to fulfill the requirements of baccalaureate degrees offered in the College.

A minimum grade point average of 2.0 for all courses taken in the department offering the major/concentration is required.

The use of transfer credit in technical subject matter areas appropriate to each organized curriculum will be considered and approved by the advisor of that curriculum and the Dean of the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources. When desirable, validating or proficiency examinations may be requested to determine competence in an area and to avoid unnecessary repetition. Such examinations should be taken during the first semester in residence and must be conducted under the supervision of the head of the department in which the course is offered. A minimum of 18 semester hours of upper division technical agriculture appropriate to a specified major requirement, and approved by the major advisor, must be completed in residence to fulfill the requirements of baccalaureate degrees offered in the College.
